

Pleiadian Healing Experience

I first met Jill and Glenn Harrison at a Mind, Body and Spirit event in Grimsby back in 2006. I felt an instant connection with them; something that I had not experienced before on a spiritual level.

I could have talked to Glenn for an eternity, since we both had a common interest in the universe and the bigger picture. I was to learn later, that I should have said universes, now I know how many there are. Time ran out (too quickly) and the show ended.

I had to wait 6 months for another show at the same venue, and I promptly booked a psychic reading with Jill. She was so accurate with the reading, it was uncanny. Some things I was unsure of, but they have all come to pass.

I was drawn to booking a Pleiadian Healing Master Class with Jill. I'd done a couple of healing classes in the past, and considered myself to be of limited but reasonably good ability, but for some reason, the attraction to this class resonated with me at a much deeper level.

I attended Pleiadian Healing Level 1 in November 2007. This first class was designed to clear you of any blockages / negative energies etc., which was, for me, quite easy, whilst others on the course let out lots of emotion. And I thought to myself, "Why am I not doing that?" But I experienced things much differently.

During the attunements and meditations, I had visual and physical experiences yet to this day, I still can't explain. Although wonderful, proof to me that something was changing /happening to me. I was laying on the floor experiencing some healing, and I recall Jill exclaiming , "I've never seen that before!" as blue rings of energy were circling my body, moving up and down, and I felt like someone was breathing across my face, whilst having my arms held off the floor and I WAS NOT in control !!!! It was wonderful, and answered a few personal questions and thoughts I had about life and the universe.

Later when the course had finished, Jill had been in contact with Archangel Metatron, and he had asked her, to ask me if I would like to join her Inner Circle. Very humbled by this, I accepted.

After the first Pleiadian course, I noticed that things ran more smoothly in my life. My powers of perception and intuition were massively heightened, and the energy that flowed through me, as a channel, was a lot stronger.

My work got in the way of getting booked onto Pleiadian Healing Level 2, but Jill told me I could skip P2 and go straight to P3. I asked Jill why that was possible, and she explained that Archangel Metatron had said my vibrational level was sufficient enough to advance a level.

On Pleiadian Healing Level 3, we learnt how to call in The Pleiadian Emissaries of Light, and let them guide us through the healing processes. We learned about the various symbols used with the different vibrational energies, and we had a number of attunements. We were put to the test, and we were able to start to use the healing on others in the group. We were shown how to scan a patient's body for dis-ease, and how to treat each ailment, and also, amazingly, how to find body implants (alien or other). Our strike rate of finding alien implants in some of the delegates was amazing.

With this knowledge and the attunements, I felt the energy that could come through me had increased massively, as so did the rest of the group. We all became very close.

These Master Classes gave me more confidence in the ability to help others with the energy that I can generate to flow through me.

At Pleiadian Healing Level 4, we learned more scanning on a deeper level, and we were introduced to symbolic treatment on the spinal area. We learned how to treat blockages from past lives and traumas. We were shown how to let the Pleiadians guide us with the movements of hands, which for me, was like knitting DNA with my fingers, at a molecular level. FANTASTIC! We were shown lots of symbols to treat specific areas of trauma / blockages along the spine, which helped me immensely.

By the end of the two-day course, I felt light-energy much stronger, and it seemed as if the Pleiadians were with me all the time, whilst my intuition and senses were heightened even more.

Pleiadian Healing Level 5 was the pinnacle. This was the last part of the 10-day workshop. I couldn't wait. I was so looking forward to it for weeks; and I wasn't disappointed.

The first day started with a deep and beautiful guided meditation, given to Jill by the Pleiadian Emissaries of Light. It was one of the best I have done so far. So good, we all asked if we could repeat it the following morning, which we did. We were cleansed through a rainbow and then went on to the Pleiadian Angelic Chamber. This workshop focussed on healing at Meridian lines in the body, a subject I found very interesting, as I had a Meridian line treatment about 7 years ago, and it opened me up to a whole world of new experiences. Jill gave us specific instructions on what to do, and what to focus on

I was partnered with Glenn, which I liked; because he is honest in what he says, and tells it like it is. He doesn't pull his punches. You ask him a question, and he gives it to you straight. He doesn't get swayed by how you might react to him, yet he still has the ability to be diplomatic if need be.

While we worked our healing on each other, the sense of energy and connection between us was intense. We both could mirror what was happening to us, as we gave our healing and received it too. The visuals I saw, whilst giving energy to Glenn, were the best I've had to date, being taken to a site of pyramids, which were an intense violet, with a piercing magenta sky and an ultra-white sun, beaming its light over the tops of all three pyramids, into my crown chakra. At this point I noticed my hands started to tingle, like I had 'pins and needles', with a lot of heat too. I asked Jill about this after, who told me that it was a higher form of energy coming through.

At the end of the workshop, we were given another meditation to do. It was wonderful. I was whisked off into the universe and was seeing nebula and star fields as if they were my eyes, so new to me, quite indescribable!!!! I didn't want to come back!

This series of healing workshops has helped me realise my true potential as a person and a healer. It has shed light on 'who I really am'. I have become a confident healer and the training has honed me to be a strong conduit / channeller of the light.

I cannot recommend this course enough, to anyone who has even the slightest urge to become a healer. After all, we ALL 'can' do it. We just need to be shown and given the correct tools to make it happen... And this is where Jill comes in, as a wonderful, gifted lady, who has the ability to trance-channel these workshops, from the Pleiadian Emissaries of Light. Jill has helped me to no end.

One of the most stunning revelations we had, as the workshops progressed, was how Jill was being given the information for the workshops. As each workshop date loomed to a start, the Pleiadians would ask Jill to put her trust in them to deliver the material, in due time for the event. By the third workshop, the Pleiadians wouldn't give her the material until two days before the workshop. Now imagine this:- you have 10 people who have paid to attend a weekend workshop, travelling for miles, some paying for accommodation in advance, and two days before the event, you have no material to work with. Stress or what? On the last two events, Jill was given words for guided meditations, and asked to get prints of Meridian lines. 12 hours of training, were given in a weekend, where Jill was given the information, as she hosted the event. WOW!

After the weekend of Pleiadian Healing Level 5, I attended the local Spiritualist Church in Cleethorpes, to help out with the healing, as they were getting a lot of people through the doors, and couldn't get them all done during the course of the evening.

I was put at the far end of the Church, in the front of the altar, and a lady, called Donna, came to me. As I started healing, my hands were pulsing energy into her on a level I had not experienced before. They felt as if they could have blistered with the heat. I was guided to heal her neck, lower back, and foot, was given lots of violet, pink, and ultra-white light, to heal her. After the healing was complete, I asked Donna about her current ailments. I had been correct in all three diagnoses, and she told me she also experienced all the same colours in the same order.

Later, when we closed the healing session, we held a circle to close the evening, and say thanks to the Angelic Realm and God, Light, the one conscious energy. The lady who runs the healing commented on the amount of extra energy she had felt during the night, and how powerful the energy was going round the circle. Eventually she said she felt it was down to me. Just more proof of how I have progressed from the Pleiadian Healing workshops.

This all must sound like a 'me-me-me' thing, but it is given without ego, for I know only too well, having spent time with Jill and Glenn, that if we let ego get in the way, the Angelic Realm will strip us of our gifts, as they will with so many next year who are abusing them. What I have experienced, which is totally individual to me, I have found immensely satisfying, and feel I need to share.

I have been asked by Ascended Masters Sanat Kumara and El Morya (Moyaagh) to ease away from my full-time job and phase in healing work, which I have already started.
